

Federal Loans

Congress created the student loan consolidation program to simplify repayment and to make payments more affordable for the newly graduated borrower, whose income may not yet be sufficient to afford repayment. Consolidating your federal loans (1) locks in your interest rate, (2) lowers your monthly payment by extending your terms, and (3) you only have one monthly payment. By doing all of this, you help increase your credit score and lower your debt-to-income ratio.

There are no credit checks, no fees, and no pre-payment penalties.
This is 100% FREE!
